The Company's Management, Board of Directors and those charged with governance are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including the other comprehensive Income, cash flows and changes in the equity of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities, if any; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, whether operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of these Consolidated Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Consolidated Financial Statements, the Management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing financial reporting process of the Company.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the companies act 2013, we are responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has in place an adequate internal financial control with reference to Consolidated financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the Consolidated financial statements of the company to express an opinion on the Consolidated financial statements.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and the qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Emphasis of Matter Paragraph

- The Consolidated Financial Statements majorly consist of the revenue and other financial items that have been booked at the AJEL Limited branch office ('Branch') and AJEL Technologies INC ('step-down subsidiary') in United States of America ('USA'). The financial statements of the said Branch and step-down subsidiary have, however, not been independently audited by Certified Public Accountant in the USA. Further, we have not conducted any audit procedures on the said financial statements and have solely relied on the said unaudited numbers as provided by the management of the company pertaining to the Branch and step-down subsidiary in the audit of the Consolidated financial statements of the Company.
- Investments within the Group entities have been re-grouped/re-classified during knock-off in the consolidated financial statements in the current financial year ended on 31.03.2026 as compared to its comparative figures.
- Amounts directly attributable to project expenses during the financial year ended 31.03.2024 have been considered as an Intangible Asset under development owing to the Memorandum of Understanding entered into between the Company and Transcord Telscape Private Limited dated 15.10.2022.
- The Company has availed a Cash Credit facility amounting to INR 5,00,00,000 (Five Crore Rupees only) from Bank of Maharashtra, Hyderabad for the purpose of servicing the expenses pertaining to the ongoing project activities out of which INR 3,00,00,000 (Three Crore Rupees only) has been advanced to Transcord Telscape Private Limited towards advance for services.
- We have verified the Cash Flow Statement of the Company for the year ended on 31 March, 2026 which has been derived from the audited annual accounts after making such adjustments / groupings as were considered appropriate.
- The company has statutory payable amounting to INR 85.36 lakhs standing payable prior to current year. In absence of management confirmation regarding its payment status we are unable to comment upon the current status of the same.

In view of the significance of the matters described in the 'Basis of Disclaimer of Opinion' section of our report, we have not been able to obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Also, the company has not provided for any interest accrued for payment in the books of accounts in this regard.
b) We were not provided with requisite details, as to confirm the balance of Trade payables and loans & advances (Receivables) of the Company standing as on 31 March 2026. In absence of such information, we were not able to comment upon the reasonableness of Trade Payables and Receivables balances as at that date and its possible impact, if any, on the financial statements.

c) The Company has financed Rs. 85,96,143 disclosed under the head "Other Long Term Loans & Advances" in the financial statements, which are yet to be recovered. d) The company held investments in listed equity shares worth INR 91.21 Lakhs (Measured at fair value) in respect of which, we were unable to verify the physical share certificates nor shares in de-materialized form for majority of the shares held as investments.

Management's And Those Charged with Governance Responsibilities for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Management, Board of Directors and those charged with governance are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including the other comprehensive Income, cash flows and changes in the equity of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities, if any; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, whether operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Financial Statements, the Management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing financial reporting process of the Company.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the companies act 2013, we are responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has in place an adequate internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the standalone financial statements of the company to express an opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and the qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Emphasis of Matter Paragraph

- The Standalone Financial Statements majorly consist of the revenue and other financial items that have been booked at the AJEL Limited branch office ('Branch') in United States of America ('USA'). The financial statements of the said Branch have, however, not been independently audited by Certified Public Accountant in the USA. Further, we have not conducted any audit procedures on the said financial statements and have solely relied on the said unaudited numbers as provided by the management of the company pertaining to the Branch in the audit of the Standalone financial statements of the Company.
- Amounts directly attributable to project expenses during the financial year ended 31.03.2024 have been considered as an Intangible Asset under development owing to the Memorandum of Understanding entered into between the Company and Transcord Telscape Private Limited dated 15.10.2022.
- The Company has availed a Cash Credit facility amounting to INR 5,00,00,000 (Five Crore Rupees only) from Bank of Maharashtra, Hyderabad for the purpose of servicing the expenses pertaining to the ongoing project activities out of which INR 3,00,00,000 (Three Crore Rupees only) has been advanced to Transcord Telscape Private Limited towards advance for services.
- We have verified the Cash Flow Statement of the Company for the year ended on 31 March, 2026, which has been derived from the annual books of accounts after making such adjustments / groupings as were considered appropriate.
- The company has statutory payable amounting to INR 85.36 lakhs standing payable prior to current year. In absence of management confirmation regarding its payment status we are unable to comment upon the current status of the same.
